Meta Quantum Medicine

WHITEPAPER

Updated 2022/07/25

Foreword

---

Phayny is a Meta Decentralized Network that connects the patient and the quantum doctor. We will come back to this later in the chapter "the decentralized network" where your data will be collected in the blockchain, a secure, anonymous, and encrypted space. Being a sovereign person, you are the living being who controls your body and the legal person inscribed in your ID. Therefore, it is your full right to keep control of it.

1. Introduction

Just like traditional allopathic medicine where the structures and foundations are well established. It is necessary to find an alternative, or rather a complementary medicine where patients can find other ways to the path of healing. Indeed, quantum medicine is more commonly called holistic or natural medicine because it treats the living being as a whole, the physical body and the consciousness. For the understanding of all, the medicine of the future will be based on the metaverse. As you already know, it is complicated to find a good naturopath because few of them are referenced. A virtual universe in the Web3 where everyone will be able to consult specialists from all over the world. The Phayny network will bridge the gap between the patient and the quantum doctor.

The patient's data will be stored in the blockchain, secure and decentralized. This means that your data is a digital property. The doctor will have a virtual world at his disposal, a cabinet, an avatar, all the necessary tools to dialogue with the patient. Slides, medical images, videos, sounds for a holistic approach. Thanks to the Metaverse, a new field of possibilities opens up around natural medicine. From meditation rooms, to wellness spaces and health walks in hyper-realistic planes. Universes that will transcend your consciousness. Invisible dimensions that will be visible in the metaverse and thus raise your full consciousness. Basic quantum physics courses will be provided to Phayny token holders to better understand the quantum universe. Internet users will experience it in virtual reality.

2. Quantum Medicine

Over the last fifty years, quantum physics has become a major force in the scientific community. In such a way that it has given a new approach to science. Traditional allopathic medicine has a linear and dualistic way of thinking about medicine where the symptoms are the cause of the disease (cause/effect). Treating with chemicals to relieve pain. Once diagnosed, it is very difficult to question the treatment, so it becomes quite complicated to step outside the box.

However, alternative methods have emerged in the Western world, the most famous of which are: Ayurvedic, Taoist, homeopathy, naturopathy, acupuncture ... etc.

Nevertheless, an essential element towards the path of healing is missing, hence holistic medicine. The medicine of the future called quantum medicine, which combines the principles of ancestral medicine applied to quantum physics where consciousness is the essence of everything.

3. The decentralized network

The blockchain technology allows you to decentralize your sensitive data, which means that it is not centralized like the most famous social networks. You control your data from the beginning to the end of the chain. Our goal is to create the necessary tools for the community and eventually the network will be self-financing.

This means that the finance is decentralized, you can pay anyone in the network $PHN tokens and this, anonymously: pay your consultations, your online purchases ... etc..

4. Gouvernance

Phayny is a Decentralized Autonomous Organization (DAO) meaning that Phayny token holders will be involved in the project through an arbitration system (voting). Also token holders will be able to submit ideas to the community, thumb up a doctor, and commented.

The blockchain allows to install a decentralized voting system unique to each $PHN token holder. Indeed, one vote = $PHN. Unforgeable

ROADMAP

6. Holistic Market

---

The World Health Organization estimates 65 - 80 percent of the population use holistic naturopathic medicine as a primary form of health care. Americans make more visits to holistic health care providers (some 600 million a year) than to M.D.s and spend more money out-of-pocket to do so about $30 billion a year by recent estimates. Holistic, Metaphysical, Energy or Mind, Body, Spirit healing has existed since the beginning of time amid religious beliefs and practices, along with the mystery, superstition, fear, and misunderstanding

7. QuantumNFT

We will call on artists for a series of collections related to the world of Quantum Physics. The works will be sold in the QuantumNFT section

To give you a number, the sales of NFT reached 25 billion dollars in 2021

8. Quantum store

The store in our metaverse allows you to visit the virtually shop as you would in real life. A 1000m2 space dedicated to herbalists, essential oils, vitamins, food supplements.

The stores will be designed and delivered to the future owner. The latter will be able to fit it out and display his sign (logo). A designer will take care of the set up for you.

We will select the best suppliers of the market, items that are difficult to get in a traditional store. It will be accessible and deliverable in the whole world.

9. Charity program

We have decided to open a donation wallet, the community will decide afterwards the destination of the donations. For each purchase in the Holistic store, NFT, 1% will be donated to the charity fund.

10. Phayny Verse

The Metaverse is the new way to surf into the Web3. More than that, it allows you to create a virtual quantum universe and thus discover the invisible world. Indeed, a travel ticket will be offered to all holders of the $PHN Token, you will learn the basics of quantum physics.

You will discover the physical body and the energetic body. Interacting with the memory of water, walks in the wilderness, waterfalls, and the view by the sea. Then we will finish the visit by the Phayny center, inside the building, you will discover a space of relaxation and rest. Passing by the meditation room, you will discover the medical cabinets. And finally, we have the whole store area.

We hope you will enjoy the immersion.

11. Technologies

Phayny has chosen to follow the new BNB CHAIN blockchain initiated by Binance (bnbchain.world) which will gradually replace the current BSC, bringing together the metaverse, DeFi, NFT and SocialFi under the same roof. A major breakthrough in the world of blockchain.

BNB CHAIN operates a paradigm shift called MetaFi, a new advanced and sophisticated infrastructure. This future global ecosystem enables seamless interoperability between different blockchains. Thus, building the Meta Quantum Medicine (MQM) platform will have all the features needed to create the MQM universe. This holistic approach allows to touch all aspects of the virtual universe.
